“ I can't believe that it is almost Christmas... one year later. I always think of you and I will always see you as 10 year old Cody... always smiling and just so funny. Oh the things I would say to you if I had the chance. I am so sorry for everything and I wish I had been there. I know you will be with Kelley*, Keaton and Shane even more this week. Merry Christmas, you were the best gift Jesus could have ever received on his birthday. Love you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I can't tell you time will help as it has been 10 months since Andrew. We still can't believe it will be a year soon. Please know other parents are praying for you and thinking of you. Thank you for your son's service and his father's service. This is a great loss to our young generation, all these great guys, that had such a future and were the kind of American we all should aspire too. May god wrap his arms and comfort you.

“ Dear Kelley and Shane:

Not sure if you both know how special Cody was to me. He was always the nephew I felt like I could call my own, even if it was by marriage. He always hugged my neck anytime I saw him out somewhere. I remember him coming up behind me at Walmart one day, and he put his hands over my eyes. When I turned around, he gave me big hug. Not many young men will initiate a hug like that out in public. He was so sweet and had a big heart. Reminds me alot of my Austin. I felt honored the day, Kelley, you asked me to go and talk to Cody, and I felt a bond with him afterwards. You both have been such great parents and will continue to be with Keaton.

*Love you both,
Kelly*

“ Cody, I miss you so much each and every day. I love and care for you so much...you are my hero. I know you are watching over me and the family and taking great care of us, as we are each other. Sometimes I really wish you were here with all of us, but then i realize how selfish that is, because you are in the greatest place of all. I love you so much Cody..save me a spot up there cousin...you and Danny D behave. love you both :)
