“ I'm so sorry of this happening because I knew him and Stella his sister. I m sorry for this and don't know what happened to him at such a young age but God wanted him more and knew it before it happened. God knows the beginning of our lives to the very end of time. It's hard losing your family and friends and even strangers that are so close to you in life then we lose them but we gotta get up and carry on because our loved ones are with us everyday. They come in all forms. Birds, crows, butterflies, animals, and flowers to signs like the wind, rain, sun, moon, stars, and shadows or airplanes going over to songs on the radio that our lost loved ones liked or we both listened to them together. Whatever it is in your life your loved one does that has pastmakes it more comforting to get by in this hard time losing them and like my daddy told Abel Holley his grandson who's nine now but seven then said when you hear or see an airplane go over think of me. It'll be me. And I have six crows that hover over me every morning and this one crow squawks all the time. Every morning my dad's at my window or wall. I hate this happened and he had a wife and kids and mom, dad, sister, brother n law and alot who loved him
