My heart goes out to Rickeys family. I am sad to hear that a great guy and friend has passed on. Its hard to keep from crying when I see this picture of his pride and joy. He wanted me to take this picture of his car one day when he invited me to come down and go for a ride an boy did he love talking about it and all the other things he would like to do to it. Just thinking about all the coversations we had in the past about that car makes me feel blessed to know this man, and call him my friend. I will never have another friend like Rickey he was a rare breed of person these days and time. God bless him. Fly High partner I and the world will miss you.
