

Sarah Helen Lamar

November 6, 1928 - February 16, 2025

Sarah Helen “Granny” Lamar, age 96, of Pulaski, TN passed away peacefully at her home on February 16, 2025. She was born on November 6, 1928. Helen affectionately known as “Granny” by everyone that knew her, was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. Granny was a faithful member of Fairview Church of Christ for many years and always kept her faith near. She was an avid fan of the Atlanta Braves, cheering them on with the crossing of her fingers and the motioning of her pretend tomahawk. She will always be remembered for her fighter spirit, her infectious laughter, her loving wisdom, and devotion to her family. To know her was the understanding that you were loved beyond words, much like she poured her love into her egg custard pies. She will be forever missed but leaves a little of her sprinkled in each one of her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. The memories she gave us will forever be shared.

“ I want to extend my deepest sympathy to all of you....James, Rickie, Ann and your families. Daddy and Helen were the same age---so growing up he felt especially close to her. He loved spending the night at Uncle Fred's and playing with all his cousins. He talked about those times often. I really enjoyed looking at the pictures---and seeing Devon in one made me smile.(He was really close to Daddy & Mama living right down the road). I could tell that Helen was an absolutely wonderful Mama and Granny. I know that you all will miss her terribly. (I'm sorry....I did not know that Thomas had passed away---he looked so much like Daddy I thought). Sending my love and deepest condolences, Brenda Howell Kennedy (James it was so good to see you at the Bodenham get together...take care).
