“ Sharon was such a sweet lady. She did so much for our church. She was always ready to jump in and help with anything. There were so many jobs she held in the church 1 being a teacher if all the precious children. 2nd she was over our meals anytime we had a meal at the church she was a big part of the planning. I will always remember her beautiful smile. She has always been the sweetest person. I will truly miss her sweet spirit. Praying for Larry and Lyne I know they will miss her so much as will her entire New Zion Family
