

Terry Stephen Appleton

December 1, 1949 - July 29, 2020

Bennett-May & Pierce Funeral Home and Crematory, 1910 Elkton Pike, Pulaski, TN 38478

Terry Stephen Appleton passed away on July 29th, 2020 at the age of 70. He was born in Pulaski, Tennessee on December 1st, 1949.

Terry started learning to lay brick, block and rock with his father around the age of 7 and continued this work until the day he died. Terry was a master craftsman and mason and his work can be seen across middle Tennessee. He arrived early and left late. He was perfect in the planning and carrying out of a project and he saw to it with wry comments and dry observations that were often humorous and wise at the same time. To be sure the skill of his labor was only surpassed by the quality of his friendship which many enjoyed and will terribly miss.

The family suggests donations to the Pisgah Cemetery c/o Brownie West 1017 Hilltop Drive Pulaski, TN 38478 or the charity of your choice.

Terry was preceded in death by his Parents Mackie Lee and Mary Ethel Adams Appleton. Brothers Shelby Appleton and Toby Appleton and a sister Maxine Fulmer.

He is survived by a son, Fred Mack Appleton of New Orleans, La. Stepdaughter, Lacy Stafford (Paul), and Sophie, Jack and Lily Stafford of Prospect, as well as sisters Alice Johnson, June Boone of Pulaski, Glenda Nelem of Michigan and brother Cletus Appleton of California.

Terry is also survived by friends Brownie West, Terry Harrvell, Rod Wells and Adair Appleton

A memorial service will be scheduled at a later date.

“ So long old buddy. I'll never forget the time we ran and played together as children. We grew up and parted many years ago but I will always remembered Terry because he taught me how to stand up for myself and fight back a little. I will miss him like a Brother. Rest In Peace.
