“ What a loss for us all, but what a gain for Heaven. I am sure he has already joined the spirit of his sweet wife Linda and they are happy to be together again. I have always thought so very much of them both. Many years ago when a young girl in her twenties found herself facing a hard new chapter in her life, Terry and Linda stepped in and were my saviors. They helped me get back on my feet and could not have been kinder or more supportive. I have thought of them many times throughout the years and have always said a prayer for them each time. Truly quality people. I am grateful that our paths crossed. My prayers for the family. God Bless.

“ Dear Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. I am praying that God will give your family peace during this difficult time. Even though I did not see Terry very often, the times that I spent with him were very memorable. My dad, Gary Bass, always shared stories with me of the fun times that they shared together. My dad always spoke so highly of his cousin, Terry!

Love,
