“ Our paths crossed with Willard through the marriage of his son and our daughter. He accepted our Dianna as his own. We share grandsons and his consistency and love will always be a blessing to them. Always thankful for those ties that bind.

“ Mr. Carr was an awesome history teacher. I remember things from his class (40 years ago). One memory .....I remember in class he had a newspaper clipping in his wallet that he kept of his wife.....not sure of wedding announcement or something else. He would proudly show that picture and talk about his family.

Willard was one of the best of the best. I was in school with him at Powell Elementary Elementary school. one of the feeder schools to Minor Hill HS when my dad and mom both taught there in the 1940s I spent one year at Powell 7th grade. Then went back to. Minor hill for the 8th grade and HS graduating in the class of 1951 Willard was right behind me at both schools graduating in the 1952 class. My parents were very fond of Willard, as well. He had a great career in the education field and a lasting impact on students, as well as Parents. He will be missed by all

“ Had Mr. Carr in history the first year He was at GCHS. Introduced himself and told us that "He had raised a lot of CORN and CANE " growing up Did not sink in at first what he was saying. Odd sense of humor he had. Several years back but not as far back as GCHS I was headed to the Tarpley farm and saw Mr. Carr had a tree down in front yard. He was trying to clear it up by himself. I went home got tractor and loader. He was glad for the help but did not want the tractor off of driveway because the tires would mess up his grass. Thanks for the memories My FRIEND. Bill Wiseman
