“ Please accept my deepest sympathy to each of the family members for your loss. I recall the many memories shared for so many years riding David's bus. . . mostly good and the ones that weren't so good; I will assume 100% of the responsibility. I will always think nothing but good thoughts of David and the years that he and his family have always been such great friends. . . whether together or separated by many miles. Praying Gods Blessings and His Peace to each of you.
