“ When I saw this I was so sad for all of you and your loss...My memories of Mr.Pickett go back to 1970 when we moved next door. I grew up watching him build and garden and fix things. He and my daddy were garden buddies and all of the Picketts were such good neighbors. I would run into their house and visit with Debbie, Doris and Darlene. Such fond memories of a time in my life that I cherish....Debbie Brewer Willett, Brentwood, TN

“ I'm so sorry to hear of my first cousin's passing, My love and prayers to Doris and family. I have lots of good memories of growing up with Gene. We got old enough to marry and start our family and didn't get to see one another often. A few years ago I was shopping at Johnson's Food-town Grocery and someone called my name, there was Gene behind me. I hugged him right there in the store. It had been years since I saw him. He looked good to be as old as we both had gotten. Pete and I are the only two left from this picture now. Me, Pete Hendrix, Gene Pickett and Eddie Shelton.
